

About Us

hillcompanies.com

harvard.ca

harvardmanagement.ca

westernsurety.ca

Harvard Developments Inc. strives to be a highly respected Western Canadian real estate company with a diversified portfolio of quality properties throughout Saskatchewan, Alberta and Manitoba with its head office located in Regina. Dealing in commercial, office, retail, industrial and investment markets the company has an exceptional record of performance in leasing, property management, development and acquisition and divestiture of properties.

Harvard Property Management Inc. is a full service, Western Canadian based, real estate management company, recognized for its reputation for leadership, flexibility, quality and performance. Harvard Property Management Inc. currently oversees 6.5 million sq. ft. of office, retail and industrial properties throughout Saskatchewan, Alberta, and Manitoba with offices in Regina, Calgary, Edmonton and Winnipeg.

Western Surety Company is a federally chartered insurance company and is one of the largest writers of surety bonds for the Canadian construction industry earning the distinction of industry leadership in the markets they serve. Western Surety is a privately held company with its head office in Regina with satellite offices located in Dartmouth, Nova Scotia and Toronto, Ontario.

Harvard Developments, Harvard Property Management and Western Surety are all subsidiaries of The Hill Companies.

Career Opportunities

At The Hill Companies, we recognize and celebrate our employees achievements and contributions and are committed to offering a rewarding and fulfilling career within the real estate industry. The Hill Companies provide employees with a challenging work environment encouraging professional growth, innovative thinking and collaborative work. Our organization respects the principle of work-life balance and involvement in the community is encouraged.

Career opportunities exist in finance, accounting, project management, building operations, property management, leasing, surety underwriting and administration.

All interested candidates are encouraged to submit their resumes via our Careers Portal at www.hillcompanies.com

Follow us on LinkedIn

Harvard

For over 113 years, The Hill Companies have provided their employees with a challenging and rewarding work environment fostering innovation, continuous learning and opportunity in pursuit of service excellence.

Employment Opportunities

- Merit based career growth and promotional opportunities
- Flex-time work environment to accommodate personal needs
- Competitive Salaries
- Incentive Plan
- Group Insurance Plan
- Pension and Group RRSP Plan
- Scholarship program for children of employees
- Home computer purchase loan program

Learning & Training

- Encouragement of lifelong learning through education and training opportunities
- Performance Planning Appraisal and Learning (PPAL) program designed to focus on individual career development
- Orientation for new employees
- Noon hour training sessions/Brain Gains
- Reimbursement of professional membership fees
- Respect in the Workplace Training

Community

- Active in supporting the communities in which we do business through volunteerism and sponsorship
- Strongly promote community involvement

Health & Wellness

- Fitness reimbursement
- Confidential referral based Employee Assistance Program for individual and family needs
- Sunshine Days
- Wellness activities
- On site fitness facility (Regina)

Employee Appreciation & Events

- Employee thank you event
- Service award appreciation
- Promotion of work/life balance and individual & family values
- Christmas party

Communication

- Regular employee meetings with Senior Management Team
- The Hill Street News – our company newsletter
- Quick Press - frequent updates on company activities
- Employee focus groups and surveys
- Company intranet “UCONNECT”

